presents the 23rd

CHARLOTTE ZOLOTOW LECTURE

Christopher Myers

Thursday
September 30, 2021
7:30 p.m.

Great Hall
Memorial Union
800 Langdon Street, Madison

Mr. Myers is the author and illustrator of distinguished, singular books for youth, including Wings, H.O.R.S.E., My Pen, and Black Cat. He has also illustrated books written by his late father, Walter Dean Myers, including Harlem, Jazz, and Monster. He is the creative director of the Make Me a World imprint at Random House Children's Books, committed to publishing stories that defy erasure, eliminate borders, respond to hard questions, and nurture dreams.

This is a free, public lecture. No tickets required. Masks are required.

If you need an accommodation to attend this event, please contact KT Horning at 608-263-3721 or kt.horning@wisc.edu. All accommodation requests should be made at least two weeks before the event.

We will attempt to fulfill requests made after this date, but cannot guarantee they will be met.

The Charlotte Zolotow Lecture is sponsored by the Cooperative Children's Book Center of the School of Education at the University of Wisconsin-Madison, with support from the Friends of the CCBC. This event is part of the Wisconsin Book Festival.
